

Interested in changing your major to Animal Science?

The following requirements must be completed or met in order to be accepted into the Department of Animal Science:

1. Attend one of the MANDATORY informational meetings announced during the semester.
2. Complete the required paperwork:
 - a. Change of Curriculum Request
 - b. Essay stating why you want an Animal Science Degree and how an Animal Science Degree will help you meet your career goals
 - c. Attach an Unofficial Transcript
3. Have completed ANSC 107 and ANSC 108 with a “B” or better in both.
4. For Production/Industry Option:
 - a. Have at least a 2.75 overall GPA at Texas A&M.
 - b. Have completed CHEM 101 & CHEM 111 or BIOL 111 (both are preferred).
 - c. MATH 141, MATH 142 are highly preferred.
5. For Science Option:
 - a. Have at least a 3.3 overall GPA at Texas A&M.
 - b. Have completed CHEM 101 & CHEM 111. (Grade of “B” or better is preferred.)
 - c. CHEM 102 & CHEM 112, MATH 141, MATH 142, and BIOL 111 are highly preferred.
6. Typically, students with more than 75 semester credit hours will not be allowed to change majors into the Department of Animal Science.

*Students who are seriously interested in ANSC and may not meet all requirements are encouraged to attend the mandatory meeting and inquire accordingly.

For more information on majoring in Animal Science please visit our website at:

<http://animalscience.tamu.edu>