

Graduate No Grade (NG) Request Form

Policy: Texas A&M University Student Rule 10.3 states, “Administrative removal of posted grades requires approval by the dean of the college in which the student was enrolled during the semester in which the courses were taken. A NG requires extensive documentation of the extraordinary circumstances justifying the No Grade.”

Instructions

Requests to the Dean of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences must be submitted in writing and include the following:

- A completed, signed, and dated request form.
- A justification statement that must include the below information as section headers:
 - The reason for your request. What problems did you encounter?
 - Describe the extraordinary circumstances that were beyond your control. Why was the situation beyond your control, giving you no choice about being involved in the problem?
 - How did these circumstances specifically affect your coursework in that semester?
 - How have the circumstances been resolved? What are your plans to be successful?
 - If you are in good academic standing, please address how you feel a No Grade assigned to your requested semester will benefit you academically.
- Written documentation, with specific dates, of extenuating circumstances from a neutral third party (physician, lawyer, counselor, etc.). Please do not include documentation that contains sensitive information such as lab results, full medical files, social security numbers, etc.
- Proof of academic and/or professional success. This documentation may include unofficial transcripts, letters of recommendation, etc.
